WHAT TIME DOES.

This will make her almost indisputably the most completely paved town, and from her experience a valuable lesson may be drawn to the promotion of public improvements. Less than twenty-five years ago Portsmouth did not have a single foot of permanent thoroughfares. When she first began upon their betterment, opposition was general and bitter. Not only was there the insistent contention that such improvement would ruin the property holder and bankrupt the city, but it was strenuously put forth that improvement could never become general in a hundred years. Notwithstanding this opposition was so powerful as to slow up paying and even stop it altogether for periods, the work progressed and now its completed result is a matter of both common satisfation and and boast. If in that time progress transformed the streets of the city, it wrought no less a change in the attitude of realty owners thereto. Instead of setting every obstacle in the way of improvement they came to demand it and oftimes there was resentment in one section because streets were luid first in another.

What was accomplished here in the city may be likewise done in the county, though-in less time. A good beginning has been made, discreet forwarding and division of paving along the several main roads will quiet what opposition remains and in a comparatively few years Scioto county can be made to rank with any of them in good roads. For while the funds derived from the special levy should be exclusively devoted to paving, a sufficent smin could be taken from the general fund to macadamize the roads of lesser importance, instead of being all practically wasted in purely temporary purposes, as has been the unfortunate practice of the past, and this would bring about the desirable end.

The colored troops fit nobly for Brother Kaps and they are not slow in claiming their reward. Before the returns were all in they had petitions out asking for two policemen from the new mayor. Will they get them? Nix, no, not in a ten thousand years. Zulu Ben Bell who is one of the aspirants for a uniform might as well go right shead Zuluing for it's a cinch he will never do any policing. We invite the Zulu one to stick a pin in this prediction.

Eight Thousand Election Extras were sold by The Times. And they were Extras that had news right up to the minute, each one having many columns of new matter. With its stereopticon flashing returns on the screen and its Extras The Times certainly gave the public quick and accurate service.

Now that the voters have decided that Scioto county must remain in the Sixth congressional district, we suppose that our excellent congressman, the Hon, Chas, C. Kearns, will start an explanation factory on his efforts to kick Scioto into the Tenth. Of course if Mr. Kearns don't love us he can refuse to run again.

The preferential plan of balloting commonly known as the Mary Ann law, was an invention of the Cleveland Baker crowd and it has proven their undoing. Under the old law and method of voting there would have been a Democratic mayor in Cleveland instead of a Republican one chosen on second choice ballots.

It has been said since the election that the local Republicans and the wets had a complete and thorough understanding by which support was exchanged. Maybe so, but it seems to this palladium of liberty that the drys also crawled into bed with the other two, at least the returns indicate that.

Someway the people seemed to like their county officers so well that they could not forego the pleasure of having them all around for credentials every two years.

Our private conviction, publish expressed is, that it doesn't make a particle of difference how good an administration is the people won't have it unless it be served up in style agreeable to

And now we suppose that the brave hove who did it all will be gin to perk up and see to it that the news of their achievements is dinned into the ears of our mayor elect.

Our own suspicion is that things will begin to happen real soon to McElhaney, Ditty, Keller & Co. We have visions of a snow ball feast, the table being set and the guests all picked out,

To Sam, Jobie and the rest of the merry erew, at New Boston: Yes, it's all right; move back and get settled for the old easy

It can't be said the colored man and brother doesn't know when he wins and at that he is rather modest, considering how he fought and voted, to demand only two policemen

Now, watch 'em. They'll begin to claim this prosperity is "hecause the elections show a drift back to the G. O. P.

GIVING HIM A REST.

Our good young Governor got it where the chicken got the ax, n the McDermott bill and the Sprague gerrymander, but he still emains the undisputed champion gizzard cater.

In view of what the whole people did to a gerrymander bill that hears his name, a certain lawyer in this town may have a haunting suspicion that a legislator finds no place, either at home or abroad, where he is honored.

And the pity is that a referendum wasn't called on all those peasures that our good young governor merely wished on the legislature and never ordered, no, never.

The county officials have more than a hint of what the plain people think of their effort to grab an extra two years for themselves at the public teat.

And now one Charles C. Kearns, congressmen present,, but not prospective, wishes he hadn't "writ" that letter, telling Scioto he didn't like her company.

And the next day many a congressional ambition withered

The more we see of elections the more are we convinced of the onlishness of predicting their results.

Now we shall see if our young friend "Doe" Sellards comes at of the little end of the horn again.

When they start one way you can't head 'em off and that's all there is to it. Why attempt to tell how it happened. It did happen and

When it came to the constitutional and referendum stuff the sters evidently went out to swat them, and swat 'em they did

We recken if the whole reservoir had tumbled down hill the ajority for Kaps would have been made ununimous.

Hardly can that lone Democrat, elected assessor without oposition be classed as a brand snatched from the burning.

William J. may claim he had a modest part in it.

GOT FINE VOTE

George D. Sendder, who received such a flattering vote for school board is particularly pleased with his election this year because of the fact that he had been out of town almost every day during the rather warm campaign. His election by so handsome a majority is proof conclusive that Mr. Sendder's nutring efforts in keeping up the standard of Portsmouth's schools is appreciated in the River City. Mr. Sendder's health is much better than it has been, which will be pleasing news to his many friends in this city.

"ZEPPELIN RAIDS ON LONDON MUST GO ON!" CRIES GERMAN PRESS

The newspapers of Bérlin are insisting that the Zeppelin raids on London shall continue, although many in many are opposing these raids on the ground that neutral nations are becoming prejudiced because so sy women and children are being killed. Berlin newspapers insist that the reason the British have not retied with similar raids is that the English aerial fleet is, inferior to the German. In the last Expelsia raid London is is believed that 300 persons were killed, although the official report placed the death list at 55

Paving Of Kendall Avenue Put Off By The City Council; Water Extension For Rose Ridge

Earnest pleas of Oscar Coburn that the city should not allow 5100, which would be the city's proportion of the cost and one damage claim to stand in the way of improving Kendall avenue from Gallia to the railroad tracks were given respectful attention by city council Wednesday night but owing to the fact that the public work season was nearing the end, it was decided that only temporary relief could be given at this time.

Mr. Coburn in addressing council reviewed the efforts of the past in trying to bring about the improvement, beginning with the petition presented five years ago and the proposed subway upsetting plans. He said the street has since been well nigh impassable. He asked that an ordinance be passed at the session providing for a tar filler street. He said City Solicitor Stanley McCall had assured him that the one square could be improved without interference to that part south of the railroad tracks, now hanging fire pending efforts to learn exactly what course the N. & W. expects to pursue about acquiring additional property there are completed within a few days. This will make her almost indisputably the most completely paved town, and from her experience a valuable lesson may be drawn to the promotion of public improvements. Less than twenty-five years ago Portsmouth did not have a single foot of permanent thoroughfares. When she first began upon their betterment, opposition was general and bitter. Not only was there the insistent contention that such improvement would ruin the property holder and bankrupt the city, but it was strenuously put forth that improvement could never become general in a hundred years. Notwithstanding this opposition was so powerful as to slow up paving and even stop it altogether for periods, the work progressed and now its completed result is a matter of both common satisfation and and boast. If in that time progress transformed the streets of the city, it wrought no less a change in the attitude of realty owners thereto. Instead of setting every obstacle in the way of improvement they came to demand it and oftimes there was resentment in one section because streets were laid first in another.

WHAT TIME DOES.

What was accomplished here in the city may be likewise done in the county, though in less time. A good beginning has been made, discreet forwarding and division of paving along the several main roads will quiet what opposition remains and in a comparatively few years Scioto county can be made to rank with any of them in good roads. For while the funds derived from the special levy should be exclusively devoted to paving, a sufflicent sum could be taken from the general fund, to macadamize the roads of lesser importance, instead of being all practically wasted in purely temporary purposes, as has been the unfortunate practice of the past, and this would being about the desirable end.

The colored troops fit nobly for Brother Kaps and they are not slow in claiming their reward. Before the returns were all in they had petitions out asking for two policemen from the new mayor. Will they get them? Nix, no, not in a ten thousand years. Zulu Ren Bell who is one of the aspirants for a uniform might as well go right ahead Zuluing for it's a cinch he will never do any policing. We invite the Zulu one to stick a pin in this prediction.

Eight Thousand Election Extras were sold by The Times And they were Extras that had news right up to the minute, each one having many columns of new matter. With its stereopticon flashing returns on the screen and its Extras The Times certainly gave the public quick and accurate service.

Now that the voters have decided that Scioto county joust remain in the Sixth congressional district, we suppose that our excellent congressman, the Hon Chus, C. Kenrus, will start an explanation factory on his efforts to kick Scioto into the Tenth. Of course if Mr. Kearns. don't love us he can refuse to run again.

The preferential plan of balloting commonly known as the Mary Ann law, was an invention of the Cleveland Baker crowd and it has proven their undoing. Under the old law and method of voting there would have been a Democratic mayor in Cleveland instead of a Republican one chosen on second choice ballots.

It has been said since the election that the local Republicans and the wets had a complete and thorough understanding by which support was exchanged. Maybe so, but it seems to this palladium of liberty that the drys also crawled into bed with the other two, at least the returns indicate that Someway the people seemed to like their county officers so well that they could not forego the pleasure of having them all around for credentials every two years.

Our private conviction, publely expressed is, that it doesn't make a particle of difference how good an administration is the people won't have it unless it be served up in style agreeable to

And now we suppose that the brave boys who did it all will begin to perk up and sec to it that the news of their achievements is dinned into the ears of our mayor-cleut.

Our own suspicion is that things will begin to happen real soon to McElhanev, Ditty, Keller & Co.: We have visious of a snow hall feast, the table being set and the guests all picked out.

To San, Jobic and the rest of the merry crew, at New Boston: Yes, it's all right; move back and get settled for the old casy times are near back again.

It can't be said the colored man and brother doesn't know when he wins and at that he is rather modest, considering how he fought and voted, to demand only two policemen:

Now, watch 'em. They'll hegin to claim this prosperity is "because the elections show a drift back to the G. O. P."

And it would neither snow nor rain rain the next day

GIVING HIM A REST.

Our good young Governor got it where the chicken got the ax on the McDermott bill and the Sprague gerrymunder, but he still emains the undisputed champion gizzard cater.

In view of what the whole people did to a gerrymander hill hat bears his name, a certain lawyer in this fown may have a haunting suspicion that a legislator finds no place, either at home or abroad, where he is honored.

And the pity is that a referendum wasn't called on all those measures that our good young governor merely wished on the legstature and never ordered, no never.

The county officials have more than a hint of what the plain people think of flieir effort to grab an extra two years for themselves at the public teat.

And now one Charles C. Kenrus; congressmen present,, but not prospective, wishes he hadn't "writ" that letter, telling Scioto he didn't like her company.

And the next day many a congressional ambition withered and curled up.

The more we see of elections the more are we convinced of the foolishness of predicting their results.

Now we shall see if our young friend "Doc" Sellards comes out of the little end of the horn again.

When they start one way you can't head 'em off and that's all there is to it. Why attempt to tell how it happened. It did happen and that is the end o' it. When it came to the constitutional and referendum stuff the oters evidently went out to swat them, and swat 'em they did. 1
